

The Kan'ei-ji Temple tour and The Small Group Tours with TMIT Students (June 2)

The outline

After the conference on June 2, the optional easy tours are scheduled. There are two tours. The first is "The Kan'ei-ji Temple tour" and another is "Small Group Tours". In "Small Group Tour", the participants go in the downtown of Tokyo, and taste various cultures of Tokyo. In "The Kan'ei-ji Temple tour", we invite to the Kan'ei-ji Temple. As it is a symbol of the culture of Japan and the participants can taste a peculiar culture of Japan, we are expecting a lot of participation. Therefore, after "The Kan'ei-ji Temple tour" ends, "The Tokyo petit-tour" will be done.

The outline of each tour is shown as follows.

The Kan'ei-ji Temple tour

The outline

Kan'ei-ji Temple was built about 400 years ago. As the participants can see a valuable exhibit, and can walk actually in the outmoded building, they taste the history and the culture of Japan by visiting there. After they arrive at the temple, the person in the temple guides it. And the time required is an hour.
